TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF HOMESTAY

Please sign the final page of this document, and put your initial on each page.

1. These terms and conditions apply to international student ('you') accepting Homestay accommodation through Family Homestay Services ('we'). Homestay service is for international students only, not their relatives and/or associated individuals (e.g. friends).
2. Please note that breach of these terms and conditions may invalidate your accommodation arrangement, which may jeopardise your course and may result in your studies being terminated.

STANDARD SERVICES

3. Meals - two meals a day: breakfast (the host may provide you with self-served breakfast) and dinner seven days a week; plus a light lunch on weekends if you are at home.
 - a. Please remember that you and your homestay may have different ideas about meals and food types, due to cultural differences. You are encouraged to discuss with homestay what you prefer, but they should only be small changes and not unreasonable demands.
 - b. If you have allergy towards any food (e.g. milk), please let homestay know as soon as possible.
4. Accommodation - a single furnished bedroom with bed, bedsheets, access to desk, adequate space for clothing and personal belongings, adequate lighting and ventilation.
 - a. Student is expected to be responsible for keeping their room, and areas they use (e.g. bathroom), clean and tidy.
5. You need to provide your own personal toiletries, e.g. toothbrush, toothpaste, soap, shampoo, etc. (Toilet paper comes from host)
6. Laundry - once a week access to laundry facilities in the homestay.
7. Other utilities - homestay fee covers reasonable utility use (e.g. electricity, gas, hot water), but not telephone calls.

CONDITIONS OF FEES

8. Homestay payments must be paid in full at time of booking of homestay.
 - a. Student must provide an email address and check it regularly for invoices and information. We will not use your email address for anything other than matters relating to your homestay, or if required by your college/university/law enforcement.
9. Student should be responsible for all additional charges incurred in the fee payment process, including (but not limited to) international wire transfer, bank transfer, etc.
10. Student's standard homestay fees will not be increased within the first 12 months of the date on which he/she first takes up homestay, or until this Agreement is terminated. Any changes to fees should be communicated to student, in writing, no less than one month before they take effect.
11. We reserve the right to take appropriate action to recover unpaid invoice, including the charging of administration fees, which shall be communicated to student in writing.
12. Moving out notification required:

- a. You must always notify your homestay host and us if you wish to move out. Notification periods apply, see below.
- b. If you are under the age of 18 at the time of proposed move-out date, you may also require your college and/or caregiver's permission. Please check with them.
- c. If the homestay host wishes to end its homestay arrangement with you, the below notice requirement apply to them also.
- d. Termination is not effective until your obligations to homestay and us are met, including financial and non-financial (e.g. returning room to clean and tidy condition).
- e. Notification required:

Situation	Notice required
If you wish to move out at the end of your first 4 weeks of your arrival at Homestay: (Note: minimum initial booking period is 4 weeks.)	7 days notice
If you wish to move out after your first 4 weeks of your arrival at Homestay:	14 days notice

13. Holidays - if you go away on holidays and wish to return to the same homestay, you may be entitled to a reduced room-holding fee. Minimum room-holding period is 7 days. You must inform your homestay and us at least 14 days before you leave for holidays, otherwise full homestay fee will apply.
 - a. If, during your holidays, you decide to not return to the homestay, but still have luggage in the homestay room, you may continue to be charged room-holding fee until you can agree with host on removing the luggage. The host is not always obliged to hold your luggage elsewhere in their house.

CANCELLATION AND REFUND PROCEDURES

14. Placement fee and first four weeks' homestay fee must be paid at time of booking.
15. Cancellation procedure:
 - a. Placement fee is non-refundable under any circumstances.
 - b. If cancellation is notified more than seven days before arrival: full refund of homestay fee and airport transfer fee.
 - c. If cancellation is notified between 48 hours and seven days before arrival: refund of two weeks' homestay fee and 50% of airport transfer fee (if applicable).

16. Change of arrival details (but not cancelling):
 - a. If notification is given less than 72 hours before scheduled arrival, a $100 administration fee will be charged.
 - b. This requirement may be waived in exceptional circumstances such as flight delay/cancellation (but not if student simply missed the flight).

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

17. The following dispute resolution procedure is made known to our homestay families and will be applied to disputes known to us:

- a. Step 0 – Homestay families are advised to produce their own ‘house rules’ and encouraged to open communication with you so that expectations are mutually understood and respected.
 - b. Step 1 – Consider a private discussion with the homestay family. If you feel this is not appropriate or it does not resolve the issue, proceed to Step 2.
 - c. Step 2 – contact us and your caregiver (if applicable). We will liaise with you and your homestay (and possibly your college’s welfare personnel) towards resolving issues.
18. However we encourage you to contact us (and your school/ caregiver as soon as possible) if you suffer from bullying, discrimination, or sexual harassment (I.e. skip straight to Step 2).
19. If we determine that the best way the issue can be resolved is by moving you to a new homestay, we would either arrange one for you, or you may obtain your own accommodation if that is approved by your caregiver and/or college’s policy. In such cases no new placement fee will be charged.
- a. However if we determine that the issue can be resolved without you moving, but you request a move nonetheless, a placement fee will be charged.

GENERAL HOMESTAY CONDITIONS

20. For many of you, this will be your first time away from home, and first experience of a foreign country. Many things will be very different and may be rather unsettling. Your homestay host will understand this and will make a special effort to include you and make you feel welcome in their home.
21. General cleanliness:
- a. Smoking is not allowed anywhere indoors – maybe allowed outdoors if homestay host allows.
 - b. Please do not eat in your bedroom, and do not store food in your room – it may cause insects/ cockroach/ rats problems.
 - c. If the room is not kept reasonably clean and causes damage, you may be liable for cleaning fees.
 - d. Please do not cook in your homestay (whether with their or your own equipment), other than simple microwave/ toaster.
22. Please be considerate to your homestay host and other people in your home:
- a. If you are unable to return to homestay for dinner, please always tell your host, so food is not wasted.
 - b. Please keep shower time reasonable – about 7 minutes is acceptable.
 - c. Please turn off lights and utilities (e.g. heater) when you sleep or go out, so energy is not wasted.
 - d. You must not bring family or friends into your Homestay’s home without your host’s permission.
23. The use of false identification, and possession of banned substances, are criminal offences, and constitute a breach of these conditions.
24. You must also follow reasonable directions from us and your Homestay host.
